Fall Conference - A Great Time For All

We just returned from our Fall Conference at Robert A. Eckert Post 81 Lake Havasu City. If you were unable to attend this year, you missed a great time. Post 81 Legion Family was a great host and everyone enjoyed themselves.

This year was the first time that we offered a Service Officers Training session that was put on by Mike Klier, Deputy Director, Arizona Veterans Service in Phoenix and his Training Officer Fred Irwin. This is the first of many training classes we are planning for the coming year. We believe that training of our officers at all levels is very important. You will be hearing more about this as the months go by.

Now is the time to offer an in-house training for all members on why we are Legionnaires; use The American Legion Extension Institute Course. The cost for the packet is $6.95. This can be offered as a class at the post and everyone can work together.

Consolidated Post Report

Last year we were very close to making 100% on turning in our CPR (Consolidated Post Report). We will be launching a contest after the first of the year for a drawing of all posts that have completed and turned in their report. These reports are very important as the numbers show Congress what we are doing. If we don't report it, how will anyone know? Gather the information on a monthly basis and keep track of it; this will make the year-end reporting much easier.

Membership

Our Membership is moving along. We have made our November goal of 65% and we are working hard on the December goal of 75%. Now is the time to start contacting our members that have not renewed in the last couple of years. Some of the questions we need to ask them are:

- Why have they not renewed?
- What can we do to bring you back?
- What do we have to offer young veterans and their families?

These are just a few questions that we need to ask; we might have to change our outlook on what we want. Think about it. You and your post are the only ones that can make the changes. Good luck on whatever you decide is best for your members and community.

My project for the year is to be there to send off our comrades that are being deployed and welcoming them home when they come back. Most important, is to be there to help their families when they need it.

That's all for now! I would like to wish all of you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Enjoy the time with family and friends. Don't forget our veterans, and our troops and their families.

Department Commander

Veterans helping Veterans:

A Shaved Ice Machine for Arizona State Veteran's Home

One of the many events the Veterans' Home staff offers to our veterans are Ice Cream Socials. Because many of the residents are lactose intolerant or have restricted diets, they are unable to enjoy these special ice cream treats. With a shaved ice machine, alternatives such as snow cones could be offered to those with diet limitations and to anyone else who didn't particularly want ice cream.

Leslie Goin, Manager of Therapeutic
Programs; Kirsten
Witbeck, Recreation
Therapist; Denni
Gonzalez, Senior
Vice President,
Unit #29)

According to Leslie Goin, the Manager of Therapeutic Programs, the Vets Home has wanted a shaved ice machine for a very long time but, because of the prohibitive cost of such a luxury, they have done without.

A couple of people from Glendale's Post #29 learned about the need for this machine, brought it to the attention of their members and almost immediately, The Earl E. Mitchell Post #29 family – the Post, Auxiliary, Riders and Sons of the Legion—pooled their money and purchased a shaved ice machine for the residents of the Veterans' Home. Squadron 29's Chuck Treat and Post 29's Commander Ruben Gonzalez helped deliver and set it up, November 5th.

On behalf of the veterans and staff of the ASVH, Ms Goin wrote lovely letters of thanks to each of the four factions involved in the purchase and delivery of this ice machine.

Rollin Kohrs, Post 29 Adjutant

American Legion Launches New Web Site

INDIANAPOLIS (Nov. 12, 2009)
America's largest veterans service organization has launched a new Web site, bulging with new content and featuring a completely redesigned look. American Legion National Commander Clarence Hill said the new Web site, "is a tremendous addition to our online presence. It's more informative, better-looking, and easier to navigate than our previous site. I encourage Legionnaires to visit www.legion.org [1] and explore the wealth of content in its pages."

Initial planning for The American Legion's new Web presence began in September 2008, according to Hill. The new site includes more than 30 separate landing pages for American Legion programs and activities, including baseball, scholarships, troop support, membership/post activities
and the Family Support Network.

Two prominent programs – The American Legion Riders and Sons of The American Legion – also have their own landing pages.
Online visitors will also find the Legion's popular blog site, "The Burn Pit."

"We've got everything there from our COP Keating fundraising drive for soldiers attacked in Afghanistan, to film footage of the Legion's 1927 National Convention in Paris, France," Hill said. It's a very impressive online compilation of what The American Legion is all about."

The Legion's new home page features two major stories, headlines and news links that are updated each morning. The page's new design also includes links to the Legion's social media such as Twitter and Facebook, to major hubs of Legion activity such as the Veterans Benefits Center and Legislative Action Center, and to the national commander's Web site.

"Our national staff has worked very hard to create this new Web site as a fantastic calling card to the entire world," Hill said.

Post 113 & Sonoita Elementary Schools Veterans Celebration

On Tuesday 10 November, the Sonoita Elementary School District #25 in association with American Legion Post 113 held their 13th annual Salute to Veterans Celebration.

The celebration was well attended and the children from Elgin school, grades K-8, did an outstanding job. They held Americanism poster contests, Americanism essay contests, and they wowed everyone with patriotic songs and a presentation by the 5th Grade Bell Ringers. Many area veterans groups and veterans from WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Granada and the Gulf were well represented.

Some of the Legion guests from Tucson were Area A Vice Commander Ken Dowse; Past Area Vice Commander, Louie Romero; District 2 Commander, Gary Nelson; District 2 Vice Commander, Lance Hurst; District 2 Historian, Tony Rigney; District 2 Auxiliary President, Kathy Szakonyi; and Hilda Reiser of the Auxiliary Unit36.

The 36th Army Band and the Fort Huachuca Honor Color Guard were on hand and the guest speaker was Retired Naval Captain Lee S. Vellom who spoke of his years in the Submarine Service and the impact of that service on the cold war and ensuing conflicts.

All present were treated to a sumptuous brunch in the school gymnasium. A job well done to Post 113, the school district, and all the volunteers and students.

District 12 Raises Money for Three Veterans Groups

District 12 Officers and members have been very busy raising funds for our veterans.

They presented a check to each of the following: Project We Remember, Arizona Veterans Home and Madison Street Veterans Association.

Pride of Membership

I am hoping that you will take the time to read the letter below that has to do with pride in membership in The American Legion. Please share it with a veteran that isn't a member and invite him/her to join.

THE AMERICAN LEGION MEMBERSHIP CARD YOU HOLD

This card, which you hold in The American legion, is a sacred heritage; your inherent right to its possession was achieved when you offered your life in the service of your country.

The American Legion is unique in that you cannot be born into it, neither a king by an edict, a dictator by a command, nor a president by proclamation can demand admission. A man with millions cannot purchase a right to membership.

The right to membership is a sacred privilege which belongs to you alone-rich or poor, regardless of race, color or creed. Cherish at all times that bit of pasteboard which you so proudly carry; let no influence or circumstances interrupt your continuity of service in the Legion, whose doors swing open to you because of your faithful service to your country.

The Legion knows no predecessor-it can have no successor, and when the last comrade entitled to wear its insignia shall have been called to his eternal rest by the great commander, The American Legion will pass out forever; but the traditions, its achievements and the spirit of service to which it was dedicated, will live on through the ages as a lasting tribute and memorial to you, who belong to
